

Careers and Beers (at home)

3 November 2020
17:50 for 18:00 start

Our Careers and Beers (at home) event brings together Edinburgh's graduates and students. This event gives students the chance to connect with graduates in an informal environment and to find out more about what comes after graduation. The event will also feature a speaker from a recruitment agency specialising in the construction, civil engineering and property industries in Scotland.

Why should you attend?

- Gain an insight into possible career paths.
- Get advice on applying for work experience, internships and graduate roles.
- Chance to build professional networks.
- An opportunity to ask questions in an informal environment.
- Expert advice from a speaker from Contract Scotland, recruitment specialists in the construction, civil engineering and property industries in Scotland.
- Find out how to get more involved in the ICE.
